

Waterfall Rappelling @ Fort Torna

District: Pune
 Fort Height: 1400 m
 Base village: Velhe, around 65 kms from Pune.
 Activity: Adventure – Rappelling down a waterfall and an associated trek

History of Torna: This was a fort won by Shivaji Maharaj in his teenage. It was here that he found a pot containing gold coins, which later was used for building Rajgad fort. Colonial Governor James Douglas aptly mentioned ‘It was Shivajis 1st conquest, the nucleus around which all others clustered, making it virtually the cradle of the Maratha Empire, which shocked the throne of the great Moguls. If Sinhadgad was Lion’s den then Torna was the Eagle’s nest’.

Torna has always been one of the popular forts for the adventure seeking trekkers. While the trek to the fort is an interesting one, this programme aims at a unique adventure of rappelling down a waterfall. The necessary safety norms of belaying, harnessing and using standard equipments will ensure a safe adventure. So... what are you waiting for?

“So join us to enjoy the thrill of rappelling under the waterfall and trek in the misty mountain”
